Strengths-based approaches animation

This animation shows the four themes of a Strengths-based Approach in action through the lens of Jade's life.

Jade and Grace work together in a strengths-based way to discover Jade's interests and talents. By working in this way, Jade is able to move forwards from the hard times and start a positive chapter in her life.

Jade's story is based on several personal histories that were shared with us for the creation of this animation. It was further developed in consultation with a group of people with lived experience of accessing similar services alongside staff who work regularly in a strengths-based way.

We would like to thank everyone who contributed to this animation including Expert Link, Inspire Chilli, Arts and Homelessness International, Tony Mckenzie and Digital Finch.
